GLEAM OF HOPEReport of Committee on Drugless Physicians' Bill
Declares Preamble
Not Proven.FURTHER TIME,
HOWEVER, TAKENThe drugless healers of British Columbia won a breathing spell in the Legislature yesterday afternoon in their battle for legislation releasing them from the dominion of the Medical Association, after having been routed before the Private Bills Committee in the morning.
In presenting the committee's report to the House, Mr. C. F. Davis, Conservative, Cowichan-Newcastle,
the chairman, personally recommended that its adoption be deferred until the question had been discussed again by the committee.
Although the committee had already agreed that the healers had advanced no evidence warranting
the legislation, said Mr. Davis, nevertheless some members wanted
to consider the proposals anew.
At yesterday morning's session of the committee, the Drugless Healers' Bill was thrown out by the committee after a warm hearing in which the medical profession was freely attacked as a commercial monopoly, ruled by prejudice and jealousy.The committee decided the healers had not presented "any evidence on which the committee could form an opinion as to the desirability of granting their petition" for removal from the Medical Act, and establishment of their own examining board.The committee chairman, Mr. C.
F. Davis, had previously warned the petitioners that lack of witnesses and refusal to answer questions as to training and qualifications would naturally influence any decision.
The spokesmen for the drugless physicians declined to go through a "medical examination" by Mr. H.
Robertson, K.C., counsel for the Medical Association, who confined himself to detailed questions on the medical education of the healers as his sole method of resisting their proposal.Both on this matter and the question of witnesses from among their patients, the healers contended the committee would only be going over ground already covered extensively in other years. They contended the big point for the committee to consider was the question of witnesses from among their patients.AMPHION HALLA Perfect Place—739 Yates St.

Large Increase

automobiles were transported to Vancouver Island,
an increase of 7,073 cars over 1928. During the past four years the number of cars transported to Vancouver Island has increased from 12,547 in 1926 to 33,665 in 1929.The Publicity Bureau assisted all the ferry companies in every possible way in their endeavor to create business for the excellent automobile ferry service operated during the year, according to the directors' report presented to the annual luncheon yesterday.The directors of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, at the luncheon yesterday, reported the steps taken by personal contact made by the Bureau representatives with people in organizations in adjacent cities who are directing traffic.Detailed allusion was made to the "Puget Sounders and B.C. Associated, prairie campaign, Eastern Canada
and Eastern Washington."Ten thousand five hundred owners of better types of automobiles
in Vancouver were sent circular letters with the folders, calling attention to the commencement of the new Stevenson-Sidney service.The folders were distributed to fifty-seven Vancouver farmers residing in Saskatchewan and Alberta were mailed Winter folders, 14,033 letters were written and dispatched by the Bureau and 35,353 letters were sent out.During the year $6,585 was expended by the Bureau among the local printing establishments, and over 600,000 descriptive folders and pamphlets and other advertising literature were distributed.The Railway Folder Schedule Distribution Company distributed 22,730 folders as follows: In Vancouver, 2,441;
Seattle-Tacoma, 2,619; Portland,
950; Northern California, 4,369;
Southern California, 2,630; Arizona, recently installed steamers from California, 1,640; coastwise steamers from Alaska, 660;
transpacific steamers to Puget Sound, 2,200; transpacific steamers to California, 1,120; Intercoastal and round the world steamers to California (including recent installations on Hamburg-American liners, 850; Hawaiian, 600;
Orient, 1,275; Strait Settlements and Mediterranean, 400;
Australia, 730. Total, 22,730.The Bureau has been complimented on the interesting and attractive manner in which the different folders of the Bureau have been compiled. The Bureau has worked in close co-operation with different travel bureaus and agencies during the year, and has assisted greatly in the distribution of literature and in assisting in getting Victoria's message to the traveling tourist.A LOCAL CASE Illustrating this contention, he said Dr. H. E. Ridwood, a leading Victoria physician, had refused to act, unless Dr. V. B. Taylor, an osteopath, had withdrawn from a case affecting Mr. Woodward's own child's life. Yet, emphasized Woodward, Dr. Taylor was not only an osteopath but was also a medical practitioner, qualified under the Medical Association's own examinations.Mr. Woodward attempted to place in evidence a letter written by Dr.
Plaskett, the director of the Dominion osteopathy school, here, but the committee insisted the scientist would have to appear in person if his views were to be placed before it.Mr. Woodward observed Dr. Plaskett could not be regarded as "an unscientific man fooled by the drugless healers," and insisted his letter would show direct knowledge of drugless healing in connection with members of the scientist's family.All drugless physicians who gave evidence stressed the contention that public opinion sanctioned their operations."We have been practicing for years without recognition," said Mr.
Gallant. "We have been getting results. We must have the qualifications to get the results. Otherwise we would not be in existence."
There is no outcry from the public for our removal."Mr. Bryant said he had been practicing for fifteen years and intended to continue operating regardless of what happened."I would go to jail if necessary, and practice again on coming out,"
he declared.Mr. Nowell asserted the public was getting tired of the "commercial attitude of the medical profession."HUMAN WRECK
He said the drugless healers' business had been built up against every handicap on the human wreck turned out by the doctors and hospitals after being forced to spend thousands of dollars."In effect the medical men say this," said Mr. Nowell. "If you can't be cured under our skill you can go home and die."Mr. Nowell said herbivores and other drugless physicians operated legally in England, although doubt was thrown on this statement by the association of the doctors.The bill would affect about 100
drugless operators in Vancouver, the committee was told. The association was said to have a membership of sixty-five, representing 80 per cent of the total for the province.Realizing by experience over a number of years the exceptional value of articles describing Victoria and Vancouver Island published in newspapers, magazines, and other periodicals, the Publicity Bureau during the past twelve months increased its activities in this direction. In 1929, according to the directors' report filed yesterday.In 1928, 450 magazines and other publications reaching a reading public of more than 2,000,000 were supplied with articles by this bureau. Last year articles with and without photographs or cuts were supplied to more than 1,000 publications, the combined circulation of which exceeds four millions.All these articles were written by Mr. Frank Gielma, the bureau's publicity writer, and the best compliment that can be paid to his work is that not one article was refused or rejected on the score of unsuitability.WOMAN IS HANGED

RULING IS GIVEN
ON SALES SLIPSBooks of Originals Are Held Good
Evidence by Judge in County CourtAn issue of general interest to retail merchants was raised in an action brought in the County Court yesterday by Mount Brothers against John Warner, for collection of an account disputed by the defendant.Hearing of the trial began yesterday and is to continue this morning.
Mr. J. B. Clearhue is appearing for the plaintiff, Mr. R. C. Lowe for the defendant, and Mr. M. B. Jackson, J.C., for the McCaskey-Systems, Ltd.The presence of Mr. Jackson, as representing the McCaskey-Systems, was due to the contention of the defendant that the plaintiff company cannot prove its account from its records because these records are contained not in bound books but in counterfeit "books." In following this practice, commonly known as the "adding cost system," original sales slips were made from a separate counterpart book for each customer.
A duplicate sales slip for each order is issued, at the top of which is a memorandum of the debit standing of the customer immediately prior to the order; and at the end ofwhich is a similar memorandum of the total debit, including the order.
This system is in use by a very large number of retail merchants.The statute defining what constitutes evidence in proof of accounts includes in this evidence the "books"
of a tradesman; and in the present action the defendant claimed that the sales slips mentioned and this system of accounting could not be construed as "books."Judge McIntosh held that the records constituted of the original sales slips were "books" within the meaning of the statute, and ruledthat those produced were evidence in proof of the account in question.To Print City's ReportTenders will be received by City

THE SESSION AT OTTAWA

Speeches from the Throne at Ottawa do not customarily forecast the importance of sessions. The latest is no exception to the rule; it is lengthy but does not imply any particularly outstanding legislation, and, indeed, in this particular, leaves much to speculation. The session, however, will be important inasmuch as it is the one immediately preceding a general election and governmental policies of the pre-election type are likely to take shape. It is noteworthy that the Speech does not deal at all with the tariff issue, which indicates that the Government in this respect is still, in the words of the Prime Minister, "waiting watchfully" to see what will ensue.

There is to be legislation for financial reorganization of the Canadian National Railways. This is to take the form of writing off some of the capital indebtedness of that road. In other words, whatever portion of that debt is wiped out will have to be paid by the people of Canada and will no longer be regarded as a liability of the railway company. It will become a part of the national debt. This is a policy of magnanimity. Such sacrifice was in reality incurred as an obligation when national ownership was decreed. In giving to this legislation the earmarks of an act of grace there should be a corresponding obligation placed on the Canadian National Railways. That organization should have to shoulder a larger balance of financial liability is left, provide the necessary sinking funds, pay the interest charges and be responsible for raising and redeeming any accessions to capital stock in the future. In other words, under financial reorganization, the Canadian National should be put on its own legs and no longer have to rest its weight on the financial crutches of the Dominion Treasury. That is the least that might be expected as a quid pro quo for having a substantial portion of its capital indebtedness obliterated at the expense of the taxpayers of the Dominion.

The present session at Ottawa will see legislation affecting the return of natural resources to the Prairie Provinces, and the return of railway lands and the Peace River Block to British Columbia. There is also some move hinted at to settle the claims of Ontario and Quebec in respect to water power rights and their relation to navigation. In pensions there is to be more adequate provision for the needs of veterans of the Great War and their dependents, a matter of moment which was given nation-wide attention not long ago by General Sir Arthur Currie who commented forcibly on the anomalies that have been allowed to prevail for so many years. The Speech alludes to the reports on radio broadcasting and on the classification and remuneration of technical and professional officials of the Federal Civil Service, but gives no hint of legislation in these regards. There will be a Bill to consolidate the Canada Grain Act, very necessary amendments to the Elections Act and to the Companies Act and some amendments to the Criminal Code.

Matters that will come before Parliament of outstanding importance, but not mentioned in the Speech, are tariff reform, unemployment and conditions arising from the wheat export situation and stock exchange losses. These are among the chief issues and problems affecting development at the present time. While they will be discussed there is no assurance of legislation to mitigate certain evils that have arisen in recent months. The session will be held under the shadow of impending dissolution, a fact that will have a bearing both upon its duration and the trend of legislation. The main political parties are now actively engaged on the task of organizing their forces in anticipation of the coming fray.

WHEAT POOL'S POLICY

A communication received by The Colonist from the Canadian Co-operative Wheat Producers Limited (Canadian Wheat Pool), takes exception to some statements made in this newspaper. It says a reference to the Wheat Pool's alleged policy of holding up the wheat supply, "is neither correct nor true." It is pointed out in this communication that the total carryover in the 1928 wheat in Canada was 104,000,000 bushels. The carryover of the Canadian Wheat Pool was some 48,000,000 bushels. In other words, the claim is made that the Pool's proportionate responsibility in this connection is less than that of the remainder of Canadian dealers. The reference in these columns to the Pool refusing to sell wheat is characterized as erroneous. The Pool claims it has offered wheat daily to the market, as have other Canadian interests, but its wheat, it says, "is not attractive to Old Country buyers so long as Argentine wheat is dumped upon the market in a bargain sale manner."

The communication alluded to also takes issue with our statement that the Wheat Pool is alarmed. The Pool says: "The Wheat Pool is not alarmed and we are not fearful of the outcome of the present marketing situation. We have paid our members $1.18-1.2 per bushel basis No. 1 Northern, Fort William, and the final payment is still to be made. On the 1929 crop we are making our customary initial payment of $1.00 per bushel, basis No. 1 Northern, Fort William, when the farmer delivers his wheat. These figures alone should suffice to convince a careful observer that most of the talk about the detrimental effect of our marketing policy is sheer nonsense."

We have given the Wheat Pool's view. It is persuaded of the wisdom of its course; it believes earnestly and convincingly that it will win. It claims that it is offering wheat all the time on the market, but it does not tell us at what price, and the fact that it is not selling to the extent hoped for indicates the price demanded is too high to meet the economic conditions that exist.

It speaks of Argentine wheat being "dumped" on the Old Country market, "in a bargain sale manner," and yet the Argentine growers are not doing too badly. The question is, however, will the Wheat Pool realize all the hopes it entertains? There is at least some uncertainty about this, especially in view of the continuous fall in the prices of wheat. Obviously the Wheat Pool's policy is designed in the best interest of the wheat growers, but whether or not its results ensue as anticipated is quite another matter, much as everyone may hope that they will. The facts that are inescapable are that up to date many important industries have suffered greatly through diminution in grain exports, and the banks have enormous sums of money tied up in the financing of the crops, and these monies could have been used for development purposes with more immediate turnovers and profits.

It must be admitted, even by the Wheat Pool, that long time storing of grain in the elevators must tend to reduce proportionately the return from that portion of the crop which is still unsold. The farmers have absolutely no guarantee respecting the balance they will receive. Their loyalty to the Wheat Pool deserves high commendation, but there are national and economic as well as Wheat Pool considerations that enter into any speculation as to what is to be the end of the policy being pursued. Whatever way the matter is viewed the Wheat Pool is gambling on ultimately higher prices, and other holders of grain in the Dominion appear to be following its example. Gambling in the necessities of life never was and never is likely to prove a healthy pursuit.

MR. GEORGE F. WATSON

Both Saanich and Victoria have experienced a loss in the death of Mr. George F. Watson after a brief illness. Mr. Watson was one of those Scotsmen who are assets to any community. His heart for many years was bound up with the progress and prosperity of Saanich, where for a long period he enjoyed municipal office, and was a Councillor at the time of his death. As Reeve he proved himself an efficient administrator and one with vision. As School Trustee he showed a sure grip of educational affairs. As Councillor he was a source of strength to municipal administration.

Aside from his municipal activities the late Mr. Watson had other interests. He was president of the Victoria Musical Festival and his heart and soul were in the work of this organization, to the success of which he was an active contributor. He had been, too, for many years a prominent and active member of the Rotary Club. Indeed, there were few movements of municipal effort started that did not find in him one ever ready to act in a public-spirited way. His loss is a particularly heavy one to Saanich Municipality, but Victoria will also miss his strong personality and the assistance he was always so ready to give in support of undertakings for advancement. Deep sympathy will be extended to his widow and children by the legion of friends won by Mr. Watson during his long career on Vancouver Island.

THE AIRSHIP

A silver shape through clouds of frosty rose,
The dwindling airship glides into the West,
I know not whence it comes nor where it goes—
On what wild aerial quest.

Strange dreams have stirred the souls of men to dare
The uncharted hazards of the perilous sky.
Yet with that venturesome crew through dusky air
My soul takes wing to fly.

Believe the icy stars and the dark curve
Of earth wrap in the quietude of night.
Their dream, my dream, until their vessel swerve
Into the morning light.

Through dangers of the unknown night my soul
With those unseeing souls shall take its way—
With them, their quest, their quest, their goal my goal,
To greet the unknown day.

Note and Comment

By R. E. D.

A med world, my masters

Still it is a beautiful old world and life in it is well worth living, for there is so much that is interesting to look forward to in the development of the affairs of men and nations. Those affairs are developing slowly but surely in all parts of the earth—and they are partly political and partly religious, a terribly combustible combination. That country is said to be greatly blessed which has no history. But surely no country can amount to much which has no history, particularly no current history. We suppose the people who are interested in ancient history are comparatively few, but everybody should be interested in current history as recorded in the press on the morning and evening of every day.

There have been hectic periods in the history of most of the nations. Some of the nations are passing through hectic periods in their history at the present time, although they have no wars upon their hands and every articulate voice in them is extolling the blessings of a peace which is far from perfect because there seems to be no assurance that it will be permanent. According to the modern press historian, there can be no permanent peace, because the natural man, when not engaged in one kind of warfare must be engaged in another kind of conflict. In modern business nations have risen against nations and the hand of every man is against the hand of every other man.

If in current history there is no war of arms, there is a war of tariffs, and the conflict is growing in intensity and should be a matter of interest to the reader of current history as well as to the business man. From the point of view of a Canadian and a Briton, there is something very pathetic about this tariff of offence and defence.

The Briton watches the trend of events with a look of apprehension upon his face and hope in his heart that something will turn up to avert the evil consequences of the war. He has appealed to the League of Nations, first to proclaim an international tariff truce and then to suggest a general reduction of tariff imposts. The League of Nations has just passed the last of a series of resolutions "deploring international tariff aggressions—and the United States is raising its tariff and some of the principal European nations, several of the minor nations, and even some of the British dependencies, have increased their tariffs.

The pathetic feature of the situation is that the Briton is satisfied in his terribly conservative mind that he can do nothing about it. The Briton has been urged to adopt defensive measures if he cannot defend his principles or his conscience to offensive measures; but if he were to do that, it would be a denial of the faith which is in him—that one of these historic days the world will see the error of its business ways and unanimously decide that the broad path of universal free trade is the path of peace and prosperity.

The man who at present holds the destiny of Great Britain in his hands is a dreamer and crusader. The internal condition of his country is critical, but he pays no attention to that condition. All his energies are concentrated upon the state of the world. He believes that if all the leaders of public opinion throughout the world could be committed to the principles of perpetual peace by the acceptance of plous resolutions and the endorsement of pacts, there could be no more wars. His eyes are closed to the obvious fact that even at the present time the nations are at war and that the principal object of their aggressions is Great Britain—that there is not a nation in the world but would rejoice if Britain were reduced from the position she has held for centuries as the undisputed mistress of the sea and the unquestioned leader in business and finance to the position of a second or third rate power. For at the back of the mind of the representative of every nation attending the parties and the conferences of Mr. Ramsay MacDonald is the hope of the ultimate crippling of the British Empire.

In the affairs of men and the history of the nations there are two paths: the path of glory and the path of duty. The poet has said that the path of glory leads but to the grave. Many years ago a distinguished British statesman, the late Lord Salisbury, indicated the path of duty in the following sentences: "In our foreign policy what we have to do is simply to perform our own part with honor; to abstain from meddling diplomatically to uphold England's honor steadily and fearlessly, and always to be rather prone to let action go along with the words rather than to let the words lag behind them." In our own time the policy of England is exemplified in a deluge of words, with no action behind them.

THE FRENCH VIEWPOINT

Sir,—It is very much to the credit of your paper that you do your excellent editorials devoted to throwing light on the French viewpoint at the Naval Conference. It is the stumbling block in all peace attempts so much so that rubbish is given the impression to its credulous public, that France is the stumbling block in all peace attempts. So much so that rubbish is given the impression to its credulous public, that France is the stumbling block in all peace attempts. So much so that rubbish is given the impression to its credulous public, that France is the stumbling block in all peace attempts.

There is a reason for so much unemployment in Canadian cities today and I think I am not alone in the belief that the reason is to be found in our lopsided educational system. Our schools, both urban and rural, are turning out, year after year, by the hundred and by the thousand, perfectly equipped candidates for unemployment. Here is a case typical of many of many. A woman located on this island not far removed from this has a large family. She is a widow in receipt of a pension. Little of this family's holding is cleared, but it is first class land and extensive, and were it cleared, would make a fine farm.

The oldest boy at home is taking the high school course by means of correspondence with the Education Department. He is studying Latin and mathematics, learning his, his, his, and plodding his weary way across point after point. The boy himself, a not unintelligent youngster, wants to be a farmer, but his mother, an extremely amiable woman, wants him to be a gentleman. His older brother is a gentleman. He is in Vancouver now; he wears a white collar and is one of Vancouver's unemployed.

It should not rest with a child's parents whether he take the high school course or not. Some educational authority should decide the matter, for parents are all peculiar in this respect, they think all their geese are swans; whereas, quite frequently, they are not even good ducks. I believe I am entirely free from this absurd trait myself, though, of course, all my young people really are swans.

In respect to rural schools, certainly, it is desirable that a boy receive further tuition after passing through the elementary grades, let him be sent to an agricultural training school and be taught field husbandry. There are miles upon miles of lands, Crown owned, in this province quite suitable to the establishment of such schools, which could be made largely self-supporting. Having passed through such a school a boy would at least have a trade he could exercise in perfect independence and without necessity to count the plying blocks on Main Street in any city in search of a job.

I have been counting heads in this locality. In all we are about two hundred people. We have four teachers, two post offices and two wharves. The nationality of the settlers is: American, Swedish, German, English, Scotch, Welsh and Japanese. Canada is represented by one man only, a Scot born in Victoria, who has spent most of his life in the United States. Even the children were, nearly all, born out of Canada. This condition obtains elsewhere I know; it is probably general to some extent in rural districts all over the province. Well then, what are the Canadians doing? Where are the native sons and daughters of British Columbia? Thousands, we are told, have gone to the United States. For many of the remainder, I think if a census were taken of the idle in our cities, the answer would be manifest.

Must Not Expect Too Big Results Of Naval Parley

EDMONTON, Feb. 21.—Declaring his belief that the outcome of the present Five Power Naval Disarmament Conference in London would be far short of the expectations of most people, but the conference would, nevertheless, be a material contribution to world peace through its educative value, Dr. J. W. Dafoe, managing editor of The Winnipeg Free Press addressed Alberta University students in Convention Hall yesterday.

PREMIERS OF PRAIRIES TO TALK WHEAT

Sudden Meeting of Provincial Chiefs With Wheat Pool Men Will Discuss Situation

NOTHING FRESH HAS SHOWN DEVELOPMENT

Alberta Premier Says It Is Necessary to See if Pool Has Been "Orderly Marketing"

(Canadian Press)

WINNIPEG, Man., Feb. 21.—Abruptly wheat prices rose in revolt today against the monotonous march of the market to new low levels. Waved on by reports of a better overseas attitude, quotations crushed the downward trend and won back 31-2 to 21-2 cents per bushel of their heavy losses. Besides, Prairie premiers joined in support of the market, announcing they will meet at Regina tomorrow with Wheat Pool officials.

NO NEW DEVELOPMENTS. No fresh anxiety over the market situation has resulted in the Regina parley announced for tomorrow, the premiers hasten to state. The purpose of the gathering is to decide on uniform legislation in the matter of the provinces' guarantee of the 15 per cent loan margin which the Pool must maintain with the banks. Such legislation, it is pointed out, will be put into effect during the current session in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta.

"The Wheat Pool's margins at the bank are still well maintained," stated Premier John Bracken in the Manitoba House today, reiterating the remark of Mr. George McEvoy, Pool sales manager, made at the beginning of the week, when prices were three cents per bushel lower than they are today. No necessity exists for the Dominion grain stabilization board suggested by Conservative Leader Col. F. G. Taylor, contended Mr. Bracken.

CONFIDENCE EXPRESSED. Expressions of confidence from Premier Bracken, and Premier J. E. Brownlee, of Alberta, came at a time when the market looks its best for many days. May wheat, after collapsing to the season's lowest point, $1.14, on each of the last two days, today closed firm at $1.17, a 21 advance of 2-4 cents for the day. The most pronounced jump was made by July advancing 31-2 cents to $1.19-8 to 1-2. October was up 21-2 to $1.30-5.

Liverpool quotations, up an unexpected 21-4 to 25-8d, accounted in greater part for the sudden strength at Winnipeg.

JUST TO BE SATISFIED. EDMONTON, Alta., Feb. 21.—Bound for a conference in Regina Saturday, at which the Premiers of the three Prairie Provinces will discuss the Canada wheat marketing situation, and the financial guarantees to the Wheat Pool which the Governments may possibly be called upon to implement, Premier J. E. Brownlee left Edmonton last night.

"If provincial guarantees are necessary to support the Wheat Pool, the Prairie Provinces may in turn demand some security from the Pool," Mr. Brownlee stated prior to his departure.

At Regina the Alberta Premier will meet Premier Bracken of Manitoba and Premier Anderson of Saskatchewan. It is the intention of the three Prairie Premiers also to discuss with Wheat Pool officials themselves the marketing situation as it stands today.

Before provincial guarantees are given, in the event of their being called on, the Alberta Government wishes to satisfy itself that the Pool officials have been conducting "orderly marketing" of their wheat and that they have not, as has been charged in certain quarters in England, "been gambling with Canada's crop on the wheat markets of the world."

"There is no more cause for alarm than there was before this conference was planned," Mr. Brownlee said. "We are simply meeting to take a careful view of the situation to assure ourselves that the Pool has been conducting 'orderly marketing,' and to insist upon security from the Pool in the unlikely event of the provinces being called upon to implement their guarantee."

POOL OFFICIALS SILENT. WINNIPEG, Feb. 21.—Wheat Pool officials, converging on Regina to attend the pending meeting, refused to make any statement until the session is under way.

"Nothing has transpired within the last two weeks to cause any alarm in the minds of the Governments regarding the wheat situation," was the assurance today of Premier Bracken, on whose initiative the meeting was announced.

"We are simply carrying out our original intentions, formed at the time the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta decided to guarantee the Pool's required margin," the Manitoba Premier told the Canadian Press. "The purpose of the meeting is to bring about uniformity in proposed provincial legislation regarding the guarantee."

Two other firemen, riding on the running board escaped possible death when they leaped as the truck started down the hill.

Market Control for Berry Growing Is Recommended. President of Saanich Fruitgrowers' Association Appears Before Agricultural Committee to Urge Placing Industry Under Similar Conditions.

A province-wide system of market control of the berry growing industry, under the Produce Marketing Act, was advocated by Mr. H. C. Oldfield, president of the Saanich Fruitgrowers' Association, who appeared before the committee of the British Columbia Fruit Growers' Association to present this proposal to the agricultural committee of the Legislature.

In appearing before that committee yesterday, Mr. T. G. Norris, solicitor for the interior committee of direction, said that in 1928 the berry growers' board of direction had been formed on the Lower Mainland. Last year the Minister of Agriculture had some doubt as to whether it would be advisable to renew the existence of the committee, owing to the fact that Vancouver Island was not under control. Now the berry growers on the island were ready to come in, so that reason why the committee should not be renewed had disappeared. Mr. Oldfield presented an amendment to the act, which would again bring into existence the committee of direction.

Mr. Norris said that there had been two polls held among the berry growers on the Mainland, and on the second poll, approval was given to the committee of direction system. It was proposed that a poll be taken among the berry growers on Vancouver Island and at Creston.

"If this project goes through, there would be three committees, one on Vancouver Island, one on the Lower Mainland and one at Creston. Ultimately, however, these three will be consolidated, and one committee will have complete direction," he stated.

Mr. R. B. Twining, managing-director of the Cordon Heat Fruitgrowers' Association, stated that an unofficial count had been taken of berry growers on the island recently, and the result showed strong support for the proposal.

"The acreage on the island is going down, and the industry is languishing. If we are going to continue in business profitably, we must have a committee which will establish one channel of price or marketing, so that we can't be cut from under, as is being done at the present time."

Captain Livesey, director of the Saanich Fruitgrowers' Association, said that the members of the Saanich Fruitgrowers' organization were in favor of the proposal. He felt that if a poll were taken of the berry growers on the island, the scheme would receive very warm endorsement.

The agricultural committee will give consideration to the project.

Painful Boils One After the Other Broke Out On Arms

Mrs. K. Rudd, 1100 Victoria Drive, Vancouver, B.C., writes:—"About a year ago I was troubled with boils. They broke out on my arms, and no sooner was one healed than another would come to take its place. I suffered great pain with them, and tried different medicines and ointments, but they did me no good. I was advised to take and, my, what relief I got; soon my skin was as clear as before."

Freight Rates Specialist Is Recommended

Fruit Growers Ask for Official to Whom Applications for Advice Can Be Made

A request from the British Columbia Fruitgrowers' Association that the Provincial Government employ a freight rates specialist, as is done in the other three Western Provinces, was submitted to the agricultural committee of the Legislature yesterday by Mr. R. H. McDonald, of Vernon, vice-president of the association.

Mr. McDonald considered that it would be a great assistance to the industry if such an appointment were made. There was no person to whom those engaged in the industry could go to secure information on the question of freight rates, with the result that when they met the railway and express companies they were not in a position adequately to present their side of the case.

Mr. Frederick Cox, of Salmon Arm, supporting the proposal, said that the appointment of a freight rates specialist was one of the most urgent needs, not only for the fruit business, but for all agricultural products.

"When we meet railway and express companies, they quote figures and other data, and we don't know

First Woman Senator in the Dominion Is Appointed

(Canadian Press)

OTTAWA, Feb. 21.—Women of Canada today reflected on the change effected by one of their sex in the opening-day ceremonies of Parliament. For once the dignity and beauty of Parliament's opening has been rivaled in interests by its aftermath—the formal sitting of the Senate, perfunctory, as a rule, to the point of boredom.

Interest of guests at Ottawa from all the Dominion yesterday was focused on an incident that made Canadian history—the introduction and swearing-in of Canada's first woman senator, the honorable Cairine McKay Wilson.

While fewer party councillors and other representatives of officialdom in gold lace and be-decorated uniforms were in evidence than last year, not for many days has the fashion display been so intriguing in its richness, colorfulness and variety.

NEW FASHIONS SEEN

Gone was the uniformity of the war period and after the long skirt was triumphantly back, touching all round, dipping to the ground in the back and up a few inches at the front and sides, flaring, paneled and frequently boasting a train.

The definitely feminine mode was emphasized by bows, sashes, ruffles and bertha of lace. In the kaleidoscopic array of colors and green predominated, from the delicate sea spray and aquamarine through to deep rich hues. The picture was enlivened by vivid splashes of red and the favorite, the cherry tone.

Green was the choice of Her Excellency, Lady Willingdon, a regal robe of almond green crepe opening over an underdress of rich brocade in green, peach color, and gold.

A guest of much interest was Miss

De We Give Such an Interpretation of Christianity as Constitutes it a Message It Would be Well for the World to Hear?"

The soloists for the day are Mrs. Arthur Dowell, Miss Dorothy Parsons and Mr. Charles Sherwood. Both services will be conducted by the pastor. On Wednesday, at 8 o'clock, Dr. Sippell will conduct the midweek service.

World's Smallest Church

Monte Casino, Covington, Kentucky

WHEN one thinks of a famous church, one naturally thinks of one great in size, great in architecture or great in its historic associations. One finds none of these characteristics in the little church on the Kentucky side of the Ohio River, and so, perhaps, one can hardly refer to it in the same manner as when speaking of Westminster, Cologne, Notre Dame or Santa Sophia. It may not be a famous church, but it is at least unique, for it is the smallest church in the world, capable of accommodating but three or four parishioners.

The small brick structure was built in 1890 by some brothers of the Benedictine Order, who used it as a shrine during the years they were engaged there in the making of sacramental wine. During the years of its use, it contained an altar, the usual church candles, a crucifix and pews for the accommodation of three people. But it is no longer used as a church, though still owned by St. Joseph's Parish of Covington. It is now merely an outhouse of the estate on which it is situated.

This interesting structure, the smallest church in the world, is on the Highland Pike, two miles south of Covington.

Rev. Dr. Ogden Of Vancouver at Oak Bay United

The minister of Oak Bay United Church, Rev. W. A. G. G. Ogden, will deliver a sermon on "The Choice of Faith." The juniors will have a sermonette on "The Choice of Faith." Materials in Garments, Silk or Wool? Rev. William Ogden, D.D., Vancouver, will address the evening congregation. Dr. Ogden is a vigorous speaker and will deal with Bible matters, representing the Bible Society.

"AUTO-SUGGESTION"

Dr. A. F. Barton Will Give Second Health Lecture on Applied Psychology

Dr. A. F. Barton will speak at both services of the Progressive Thought Temple tomorrow. At 11 o'clock he will take for his theme, "Signs of the Times," and in the evening he will give another lecture on applied psychology, under the title "Auto-Suggestion." On Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, Dr. Barton will give another health lecture on "Tonsils and Adenoids—What They Are and Why."

On Monday evening Dr. Barton is arranging a mass meeting to discuss medical liberty, and it is scheduled to commence at 8 o'clock. Prominent Vancouver and Victoria speakers will be made for each congregation in St. Andrew's Church, commencing on Tuesday next and continuing till Wednesday evening. In addition to reports from the several mission fields, statistical reports of the B.C. Prohibition Association and also from the W.M.S., the reports of the different standing committees will be presented. The mission committee's report will be given by Rev. J. S. P. Luttrell, Moderator, on Tuesday evening, and the report of the B.Y.P.U. on Friday at 8 o'clock.

CHURCH'S HEALING MINISTRY IS TOPIC

Rev. H. P. S. Luttrell to Consider Bearing of Christ's Cures on Modern Followers

At St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Douglas Street, tomorrow, the minister, Rev. H. P. S. Luttrell, will officiate and preach at both morning and evening services. The theme of the morning sermon will be "The Glory in the Church," Eph. iii, 20-21, and will deal with the fact of God's ability to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, and the implications of that glorious fact for the church.

In the evening, Mr. Luttrell's text will be the words, "If thou canst," found in Mark ix, 22-23, which will be the basis of a discussion of the incident after the Transfiguration when the father of an epileptic lad came to Jesus saying, "If thou canst do anything, have compassion on us and help us." Jesus said, "If thou canst believe, all things are possible." Mr. Luttrell will speak on the healing ministry of Christ's church today.

Mr. W. H. Blackaller To Continue Topic On Monday Evening

The lecture on Monday at the British-Israel Association will be given by Mr. W. H. Blackaller, and will be a continuation of last week's subject, "The Sign of His Coming." Visitors are welcome—Gordon Block, 739 Yates Street.

STOCKS ARE SUBJECT OF TEMPLE PLAY

Dr. Davies to Link Parable of Good Samaritan With Aspects of Modern Finance

ORCHESTRA TO MAKE DEBUT

Stories of prodigals who have returned as a result of the religious drama of "The Prodigal Son," rendered at the City Temple last Sunday night, have been received by Temple officials. Accounts of family reunions have come from Vancouver, Seattle and Victoria, which acknowledge with grateful thanks the parable of Jesus, which was given a modern setting by Maude Hammond and rendered by a capable personnel to an over-crowded congregation and to still greater multitudes over the air.

On Sunday evening the newly organized orchestra will make its debut with sixteen instruments. The programme will be rendered as follows:

Prelude, "War March of the Priests" (Mendelssohn); "Cadet Drill March" (Ascher); "Diana Overture" (Ascher); "Barcarolle" (Offenbach); "Pilgrims' Chorus" (Wagner); offertory, Handel's "Largo" postlude, "Pilgrims' Love Song" (Ascher). A. L. Hickling, conductor.

The Temple choir sings "Blessed Be the God and Father" (Weasley), with solo, Mrs. T. Anderson sings "Cast Thy Burden on the Lord" (Hamblin).

Mr. Frank H. Partridge will render the theme solo for the evening dramatization of "The Good Samaritan," which will be enacted by Dr. Clem Davies and a strong cast from the Leitch Players. The story dramatizes the ancient parable and is written around the recent rise and fall on the Stock Exchange; the setting being in a stock brokerage office of Gordon Harris, a role which will be carried by Dr. Davies. Other characters are: Watson, Harris' office head, Leon Cluff; Sir John Seniors, millionaire and general conference lay delegate, Lorus Bagley; Herbert Thane, company promoter and chairman of church synod and building committee, Rolan Parker; Rev. Dr. Lievellyn, pastor of the Church of Humanity, George M. Durham; Captain Jake Hanson, rough and ready retired seaman, Raymond; Toby Leitch, Millicent O'Neill from the "Polles," Esther Todd.

Dr. Davies will conduct worship after the play on "The Beauty Contest That Saved a Nation" at the morning service at 11 o'clock. The morning anthem by the Temple choir, written by Kent, is "Thine, O Lord, is the Greatness." Music is under the direction of George A. Downard. Services are held in the Royal Victoria, corner of Blanshard and Broughton Streets.

Publicity Bureau Points
Out That Holiday Magnet of Island Is Most Effective

INDUSTRIES HAVE HAD STIMULUS

The directors of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau at the luncheon yesterday expressed the view that Victoria and Vancouver Island generally are only just beginning to receive recognition as a holiday playground, and that they are confident that the increase in this business will be more rapid during the next few years than it has been in the past. This belief is founded on the following facts:

(1) The cumulative and persistent efforts of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau at the luncheon yesterday expressed the view that Victoria and Vancouver Island generally are only just beginning to receive recognition as a holiday playground, and that they are confident that the increase in this business will be more rapid during the next few years than it has been in the past. This belief is founded on the following facts:

(2) The wide-rung publicity given to this city and island by the two great Canadian transportation companies, the Canadian Pacific Railway and the Canadian National Railway.

(3) The increased and improved ferry service between this city and the Mainland, and the advertising carried on by the competing companies operating the summer ferries.

(4) The ever-increasing dissemination of information about Victoria and Vancouver Island by the many thousands of people who have been here and have gone home again refreshed in health and loud in their praises of our scenery and climate.

EFFECTIVE INDUSTRY

As the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau has continually predicted, and as has been found to be the case with other parts of this continent, and also in Europe, trade is now beginning to follow the annual tourist influx to Victoria. We find in Victoria a great increase in building, hotels, apartment blocks, stores, and private houses being erected, and as a result more employment for our artisans and more business for our business men. Elsewhere on Vancouver Island there is not only a greater demand for those of our natural resources already being exploited, but capital is also being invested in the harnessing of our overabundance of our rivers, and the development of coal mines that have long lain dormant. Employment due to these activities has been used for many hundreds of wage-earners. In some cases investing capitalists became interested in our resources while holidaying here on Vancouver Island, and in all cases income derived from the tourist influx was the determining factor when an investment of large sums in the development of Vancouver Island was under consideration.

HOLIDAY APPEAL

It is of course obvious that it is much easier to entice a captain of industry over to this part of the country to enjoy our fishing, for instance, than to get him to leave his desk simply to come across and look at undeveloped power or resources. In fact, it has been proved by many other large cities that it is practically impossible to get leaders of industry to come and examine new fields for their activities, while it is quite easy comparatively to induce them to come to the same place for a holiday. Once on the ground it is generally very difficult for business men not to take an interest in industrial possibilities around them. And, of course, one must never forget that every visitor to Victoria on his return to his own city is a publicity agent for this city and island.

The following figures, we feel, give a good idea of the steady growth of Victoria during the past seven years. The first figures in each case are for 1922, the second for 1929.

	1922	1929
Total number of telephone subscribers	18,403	20,446
Total telephone lines	10,881	20,446
Total electric power generated	10,331,812	20,406,133
Water meter service	9,474	12,111
Telephone calls	12,015	17,787
Amounts of building	1,132,094	13,862,861
Tourists	100,000	400,000
Bank clearings	6,000	32,400
Bank clearings	$100,775,484	$131,228,015

ISLAND ANGLING STREAMS WIN FRESH SUPPORT

Although more fishing waters in other parts of the province have been opened up to the angler during recent years, Vancouver Island's rivers, lakes and streams have not only held their old friends, but also gained many new ones. Trout down here may not be quite so large as those to be found elsewhere, but they are full of fight, while the steelhead of the Stump, Cowichan and Oyster Rivers have only one equal as a sporting fish, and that is the salmon of Scotland. Campbell River is in a position by itself as a river water, and is rightly becoming a world famous among fishermen. Fishermen as a class are good spenders, and it is pleasant to feel that Vancouver Island is still so popular with them that each year sees more anglers coming here to enjoy their favorite sport. The directors of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau at the annual meeting yesterday said they felt that the island angling fish are a most valuable asset, and that every means possible should be taken to serve them and to make accessible by trails, where roads are not feasible, other streams and rivers at present closed to the visitor and resident sportsmen.

Some people think twice before they speak; more speak twice before they think.

GENESIS TO BE DEAN'S SUBJECT

Cathedral Topic to Be Drawn From Scripture Lesson of Sexagesima Sunday

ST. MATTHIAS' DAY TO BE OBSERVED

As the first lesson appointed to be read in Anglican churches at Morning Prayer on Sexagesima Sunday is taken from the third chapter of Genesis, the Dean of Columbia will preach on the subject of "The Modern Man and the Genesis Story of the Fall" at the 11 o'clock service in Christ Church Cathedral tomorrow.

Other services in the Cathedral will be Holy Communion at 8 and 9:30 o'clock, a service for children at 3 o'clock, and Evensong at 7:30. Rev. E. W. P. Carter will conduct the afternoon service, to which parents and children are invited, and the Dean will preach at the 7:30 o'clock service.

On Monday, St. Matthias' Day, Morning Prayer will be held at 9:30 o'clock in the north aisle chapel of the Cathedral, followed by Holy Communion at 10:30, and Evensong, with hymns and short address by Rev. A. G. E. Munson, at 5:15. A meeting for parents will take place in the Memorial Hall on Tuesday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, to discuss the question, "How can parents and the Church's teachers help one another to obtain for the children the most effective religious education possible for them?" The Dean will preside at this meeting, which it is hoped will be largely attended by mothers of children.

REV. H. NIXON TO SPEAK ON CHRIST AND UNEMPLOYED

"Finding Good in Unexpected Places" is the theme chosen by the pastor of Fairfield United Church, Rev. Hugh Nixon, for Sunday morning, and in the evening he will take for his subject "Christ and the Unemployed." Mr. James Petrie, bass soloist, will sing "Shadows," and an anthem by the choir, with a duet by Misses Grace Platt and Eva Dame and a solo by Mr. J. Petrie. The evening soloist is Mr. A. W. Lucking, who will sing "The Lord Is My Rock," and an anthem will be rendered by the choir.

Salvation Army Padre Will Give Lecture Series

There will be a "welcome" meeting at the Salvation Army Citadel, Broad Street, tonight at 8 o'clock, when Commandant Carroll, O.B.E., will commence a two weeks' campaign of special meetings. The meetings will be open to the public and will commence every night except Friday, at 8 o'clock. Tomorrow's meetings will be held at the usual hours, 11, 3-15 and 7-15 o'clock. The Commandant, who was an overseas chaplain connected with the forces in Victoria about nine years ago, and his lectures on "Jerusalem" and "The Angels at Mons" were particularly enjoyed. He has since visited the battlefields of France, and will no doubt give an evening to that interesting subject. Other topics that the padre deals with in his meetings are "The Wandering Jew," "Is Disarmament Necessary," "The Battle of Books," "Is the Bible a Living Force?" and "Is the Second Coming of Christ Imminent?"

Anniversary of First Bishop's Consecration

As noted in The Canadian Churchman of recent date, February 24 is the seventy-first anniversary of the consecration of Rt. Rev. George Hills, D.D., as first bishop of the first diocese of Western Canada. Since then four dioceses have been called into being, those of Galedonia, New Westminster, Kootenay and Cariboo, the five constituting the Ecclesiastical Province of British Columbia. Bishop Hills died on December 10, 1893, at Parham, Suffolk, England.

Rev. H. J. Armitage To Tell of "Biggest Thing in the World"

The pastor of Victoria West United Church, Rev. H. J. Armitage, will conduct the services on Sunday. The subject of the sermon at the morning hour of worship will be "The Biggest Thing in the World." The junior choir will provide the special music.

Sunday school meets each Sunday at 12:15 o'clock. At the evening service "The Helper of the Helpless" will be the subject of the message. There will be evangelistic hymns, and the choir will render the anthem. All are cordially invited to these services.

WILL SPEAK ON SOCIAL SERVICE

The services at St. Paul's Garrison Church, Esquimalt, tomorrow are as follows: 8 o'clock, Holy Communion; 10:30, Matins and sermon. The rector will preach on the social service work of the church, and 7 o'clock, Evensong and sermon.

East Indians to Send A Mission to England

How East Indians, themselves the result of missions, are in turn sending a mission to the British churches during the coming year, will be told in the church feature in tomorrow's issue.

LINEHAM AND C. BRYNJOLFSON REACH FINALS

Cubs Take Another Whittewashing From Seattle Esks, 5 to 0

Sound City Puckchasers Creep to Within Three Points of Second-Place Lions by Victory Over Orphaned Victoria Icemen

SEATTLE, Feb. 21.—The Seattle Eskimos climbed to within three points of the second-place Vancouver Lions in the Pacific Coast Hockey League when they whittewashed the Victoria Cubs, 5 to 0, here tonight.

Although the Victoria club had a new goaltender in the person of Red Hardaker, the Eskimos piled up the five points virtually at will. Bessie, Seattle defence ace, scored another goal in the last period which did not count, as his teammate, Jack Riley was offside. Another goal was scored twice but, of course, only counted once. Townsend opened the third stanza with a quick goal on a lone rush and Anderson batted the puck back into the net again after it had bounced out. Hardaker attempted to stop the shot, as he did not know Townsend's poke had already gone into the net.

The Eskimos scored one goal in each of the first two periods and the remaining three in the last. Anderson scored the first on a nice pass from Walker. Harris copped the second on a rebound off Hardaker's pads. Fifty-four seconds after the start of the third period Townsend gained his goal and Anderson added another on a lone rush two minutes later. The final point was scored by Harris on a pass from Walker. Harris took the puck on the left side of the goal and then skated in front and swished the rubber into the twine. Victoria attempted time and time again to break through the Seattle defence but gained few clear shots at the Eskimo goal.

ION IGNORES MEGAPHONES

Many spectators took megaphones to the contest but found little use for them other than to boo Referee Ion. The official caused an uproar last week when he ordered two megaphones to be taken away from a man and his wife. He ignored the cheer instruments tonight.

The Lineups

Seattle: Winkler, Goal; Benson, Defence; Townsend, Wing; Walker, Centre; Sutherland, Wing; Osmundson, Seattle sub; Savage, Riley, Daly, Harris, Reinikka. Victoria: Hardaker, Goal; H. Runge, Defence; Kelly, Wing; Leacock, Centre; Osmundson, Seattle sub; Savage, Riley, Daly, Harris, Reinikka. Victoria subs—Lowe, Williamson, Evans, P. Runge. Referee—Mickey Ion.

Runge. Third period—3, Seattle, Townsend, 34:4. Seattle, Anderson, 2:02; Seattle, Harris from Walker, 12:26. Penalties: Townsend (2), Daly, Lowe, Kenny.

TILLCUM CLUB HAS GOOD YEAR

Last Twelve Months Most Successful Since Organization—All Officers Are Returned

Members of the Tillcum Athletic Club at their annual meeting last night were so satisfied with the success made during the last twelve months that they returned the complete slate of last year's officers. P. B. Richardson, secretary, in submitting his report, stated that the 1929-30 term was the most successful since the organization of the club six years ago.

The meeting decided to stage a monster smoker in the near future, in hopes of bolstering the membership, which at the present time is in excess of four hundred.

The officers for the ensuing twelve months follow: President, Gilbert A. Heinekey; vice-president, Bob Vipond; secretary-treasurer, P. B. Richardson. The following were named chairmen of the respective committees: House, R. Tillyer; utility, H. Smith; floor, J. Wormald; sports, J. Gow. George Patton was elected honorary president, and Police Commissioner Andy McGavin and "Red" Ramsdale were named honorary vice-presidents.

Yankee Migration Is Now Under Way

(Associated Press) NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—The New York Yankees' annual spring migration to St. Petersburg, Fla., gets under way at 10 o'clock tonight. Three players will form the advance guard. Pitchers Poser Edwards and Freddie Heilmann, and Catcher Karlon. They should arrive in St. Petersburg Sunday at about the same time that twenty-two other Yankees make their way to the same spot by other routes.

Keep the Left Hand in Control on Upswing

The body does not rotate when the club is taken back in golf. One of the greatest causes of confusion comes from many players trying to make it. The way to lower one's score is to swing the club back with the left hand. The hands do the hitting in golf, so they, and not the body, must necessarily control the club.

Your backswing starts with the left hand moving to the rear away from the ball. As this movement causes the left shoulder to be pulled, due to the left arm being straight, the left side is pulled around. So you brace the right leg to maintain balance to prevent swaying. Later, the pull is upward and somewhat to the rear as the left hand swings the club up and back over the right shoulder. So you lock the right hip to maintain your balance, to keep you from tilting backwards a bit at the end of the backswing. Forget the pivot. The idea is to get into the mind is to swing the club with the hands, the left taking it back. You must if you are to hit with the hands.

CAMPOLLO MAY MEET CARNERA

Giants May Be Matched This Summer, Providing Argentine Can Whip Risko

MIAMI, Feb. 21.—Depending on the outcome of his fight with Johnny Risko on the Scott-Sharkey heavyweight card, February 27, Victorio Campollo faces the prospect of being very much in line for a fight with Primo Carnera in the summer.

The giant Argentine, if he beats the rugged Risko, may be teamed for a battle with Primo Carnera in a bout that would test the foundations of any ring. These two alone represent a quarter-ton of heavy-weight, for Campollo weighs 240 while the huge Italian is above 280.

Plans now are to match the Scott-Sharkey winner with Max Schmeling on the Milk Fund card at the Yankee Stadium, New York, the end of June, but because of the long-standing managerial difficulties in which Schmeling has been involved, the understanding is Campollo may be held in reserve as an alternative opponent. However, Johnny Risko may upset all these bright prospects for the South American. Johnny, in the past, has upset some of the best-laid plans.

The Miami Boxing Commission was expected to ratify selections today for the referees on next week's card. Lou Magnolia was considered virtually certain to draw the assignment for the main bout. Sharkey's camp has served an ultimatum that Magnolia is the only acceptable third man in the ring.

The only change in the training programme today called for Risko to move in from his regular camp at Hollywood to exhibit his punches in the Miami ring, using also for Phil Scott's workouts. Jack Sharkey took the day off yesterday and played golf. Phil Scott helped Tommy Lourenson entertain society at Palm Beach.

Chicago Cubs to Start Training on Sunday

NEEDLES, Cal., Feb. 21.—Trained by seventy-two hours of riding toward the scene of their early baseball labors, the athletes included in the first squad of the National League champions, Chicago Cubs, were cheered today by the announcement that no work will be done until Sunday.

Manager Joe McCarthy had planned to send the boys right to work, but changed his mind and decided to let them limber up on the Catalina Island golf course this afternoon and tomorrow.

The arrival in Los Angeles was scheduled for this morning, with the last of the rides, a boat trip to William Wrigley's island, to follow immediately.

A son of E. W. Carr-Hilton, of Dunbar, a well-known and popular figure in the cricket world for many years and represented British Columbia in the Western Canada tournament at Calgary and Edmonton, and at the former city, in 1922, he headed the outside visitors to the second annual Empire Hotel midwinter golf tournament, and to allow them to attend the dinner dance tonight at the Empress Hotel, the Vancouver boat will be held until 1 a.m.

COLWOOD ACE AND UPLANDS YOUTH TO BATTLE FOR TITLE

Brynjolfson Puts Out A. S. G. Musgrave, 5 and 4, While Lineham Triumphs Over R. J. Darcus, 2 and 1—Nora Wilson and Harold Wilson Capture Mixed Foursome Event

Mrs. Philbrick Wins Women's Title From Miss Audain in Close Match

Harold Lineham, Colwood's leading player, and the seventeen-year-old Clarence "Slink" Brynjolfson, of Uplands, will meet in the final of the Empire Hotel midwinter golf tournament at the Colwood Golf and Country Club today as the result of their victories in the semifinals yesterday.

R. J. Darcus, Colwood, 2 and 1, while Brynjolfson triumphed over A. S. G. Musgrave, of Oak Bay, 5 and 4. Today's final will be over thirty-six holes, the first round starting at 10 a.m., and the second at 1:30 p.m. Alex Rose, Seattle, will referee the match.

Mrs. R. B. Philbrick, of Oak Bay, added another title to her lengthy string when she won the women's open championship from Miss Audain, Colwood, 2 up. Mrs. Philbrick holds the city and Colwood titles.

Yesterday's matches were played under ideal conditions. A bright sun flooded the course throughout the whole day, and conditions were excellent.

Lineham played sterling golf in putting out his clubmate, Darcus. The latter started out like a house on fire and captured three of the first four holes. Then Lineham began to hit his stride and captured the seventh with a birdie two and the eighth with a birdie three. They halved the ninth in fives, and Darcus started the homeward journey 1 up.

Lineham squared the match on the twelfth and went into the lead on the thirteenth, with a two. Darcus captured the sixteenth to prolong the match, but was laid a half stymie on the seventeenth and lost the hole and match.

DEADLY ON GREENS
Lineham's plying was brilliant, and several times he pulled away from marathon distances. Darcus, who is usually dead on the carpet, lost his touch around the seventh hole. Lineham gave five strokes to Darcus and was around in 75, while Darcus took 80 strokes.

Playing on an even handicap allowance, Brynjolfson proved too strong for Musgrave. The youthful Uplands player took an early lead and rounded the turn three holes in the lead. Coming home, Brynjolfson played consistently to win on the fourteenth hole. Brynjolfson toured the layout in an even 80, while his opponent used up 85 strokes.

The Uplands youngster's work around the green was particularly strong and his approaching very deadly. The players were about equal off the tee, and with their long drives Brynjolfson had a grave round trouble with his maulie and was erratic on the carpets.

Today Lineham will have to give Brynjolfson four strokes on each hole.

GIVES FINE DISPLAY
Mrs. Philbrick played beautiful golf in defeating Miss Audain, 2 up. The city champion dominated eight strokes to her opponent, and, in the whole round, she was out of the hole on the fourteenth hole. Mrs. Philbrick squared the match at the ninth. Coming home, a merry war was waged, with Mrs. Philbrick capturing the tenth to take her first lead. Miss Audain squared the match on the next hole, but lost the twelfth to 1 down again.

Lineham captured the difficult thirteenth to again square the match. The next three were halved. On the fourteenth Mrs. Philbrick pulled off a brilliant shot when she used her niblick to jump a dead stymie and land the ball in the hole. Mrs. Philbrick played beautiful golf on the seventeenth to take the lead again with a birdie four. Miss Audain had a stroke on this hole, but took six. On the last hole Miss Audain putted poorly and lost all chance of prolonging the match.

Harold Wilson, Oak Bay, and J. D. Campbell, of the same club, will battle it out for honors in the first flight. The former defeated J. A. Scott, 2 and 1, while the latter eliminated G. McKee, Saskatoon, 1 up.

Alex Strath, Colwood, played a brilliant game in winning the second flight from J. S. Materson, of Oak Bay, 6 and 5. H. W. Niven carried off the third prize by defeating J. H. Richardson, 1 up.

Dr. D. J. Ferguson, Calgary, won the fifth flight from Alex Rose, Seattle, 1 up. R. W. Thayer took the honors in the fifth flight from W. B. Wilson, 2 and 1.

Mrs. H. F. Crowe, Colwood, won the first flight from Mrs. Macfarlane, Uplands, 2 and 1. While Miss Nora Wilson captured the fourth flight from Mrs. Scott, 3 and 1. Miss Nora Wilson and Harold Wilson won the mixed foursome with a net score of 79½. Mrs. Jackson and Bob Morrison won second, one stroke behind the leaders.

Slingsby Finishes Twelve-Hour Grind At Crystal Garden

Victoria's Aspirant for the Strait of Juan de Fuca Swim Completes First Part of Lengthy Training Session

Trd Slingsby, Victoria's aspirant for the Strait of Juan de Fuca swim, completed the first grind of a lengthy training session for the distance event early in July, by staying in the water of the Crystal Garden for twelve hours and fifteen minutes yesterday. Entering the pool at 10 o'clock in the morning, Slingsby kept active until 10:15 o'clock last night. As a fitting conclusion to this lengthy ducking, he swam in an exhibition race over 100 yards in competition with Betty Pollard, secretary of the Crystal Garden Swimming Club. When he climbed out of the water, he showed no signs of being exhausted. During his stay in the water, Trd Slingsby was fed hot chocolate, sweet, malted milk, fresh milk and raw eggs by Al. Garnot, a member of the Crystal Garden Club. Slingsby's next training session will take him to the outdoors, where he will do road work. About the middle of April he is expected to undergo a rigid training in the waters of the Inner Harbor or the Gorge.

U.S. Yachts Named
NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—The United States team of six-meter yachts, which is to meet the Royal Victoria Yacht Club in an international series early in April, has been named. Representing America will be the Heron, owned by Cornelius P. F. Schaff, of the Larchmont Yacht Club; the Clytie, owned by J. S. Johnston, and the Thalia, owned by Louis C. Young, of the American Yacht Club.

K.O. Christner Beaten
BOSTON, Feb. 21.—Ernie Schaff, Boston heavyweight, squared his accounts with K.O. Christner, of Akron, Ohio, by edging him out of the decision here tonight in a grueling ten-round contest. Schaff weighed 202 and Christner was seven pounds lighter.

Vince Dundee Wins Welter Wrestling
NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Vince Dundee, rugged big brother of the former welterweight champion, Joe Dundee, easily won the decision tonight over Bucky Lawless, Syracuse heavyweight, in a slow ten-round bout on the Larry Johnston-Pete Latzo card at Madison Square Garden. Dundee weighed 154-14; Lawless 149.

MYSTIC HEALER NEW SENSATION
VIENNA, Austria, Feb. 21.—Dr. Valentin Zelle, mystic healer of Austria, who treats an average of 300 patients a day, who last year was valued by 47,000 from Germany alone, and whose practice has boomed a country village of 800 inhabitants to a town of 140,000 transient seekers of cures, is due for another banner year, despite his earnest advertisements urging people to keep away.

In his office in the little town of Gallspach, near the German frontier, Dr. Zelle treats often, when pressed, as many as 1,000 persons in one day, and during the summer receives even 1,500 daily.

Last year's swarm of visitors caused a furore among the Austrian doctors, who must be content with a few patients, many of whom forget to pay. Dr. Zelle, in the opinion of his less popular colleagues in Austria, is a "surpriser," or in plain English, a quack, though one doctor admits that by the use of controlled rays, combined with suggestion, he might help his patients at least temporarily, while the conservative doctors are slow to employ the rays even where they might be beneficial.

But the citizens of Gallspach are all for Dr. Zelle. They don't care what kind of hocus-pocus the mysterious doctor uses so long as their existing ten hotels, nine boarding houses and private lodgings are filled. And they are building three more hotels to house the even greater rush that is expected.

PROTEST IS MADE OVER CONCESSION
AMERICAN PAPER OBJECTS TO ALLOWING BRITISH TO WORK MINERAL LANDS ON PANAMA CANAL

PANAMA CITY, Feb. 21.—A further protest against the concession by the British-owned Panama Corporation of a concession ostensibly held for mineral exploitation, of almost 10,000 square miles of land surrounding the Panama Canal, is made today by The Panama American, only Latin-American newspaper owned and edited by American.

The paper asks Mr. Eliot Alvin, its President, to explain why the company is working the territory.

"Unless Alvin can show," demands the editorial, "good and sufficient reason why his company are holding these vast areas, the American State Department should ask Panama to cancel the British concession."

Although every additional acquisition of land has increased the menace to canal defence, says the newspaper, it is surprising that no official protest has been made. The paper reminds its readers that two years ago, when the American company proposed to build two deep-water ports on the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, connected by a modern highway, the State Department, heading an attack made by The Panama American, announced that only the United States, and no foreign country or its subjects, would be granted a concession of the territory.

In conclusion the editorial hints that the time has come when the State Department should adopt a firm hands-off policy in Panama, and give close scrutiny to the operations of foreigners on land contiguous to the Panama Canal.

GRUESOME STORY TOLD OF SOVIET
Russian Representative in Norway Goes in Fear of Vengeance of Fellow Countryman

OSLO, Norway, Feb. 21.—Soviet Russia's representation in Oslo is beset with a new crisis. Police-men are on guard today before the Soviet legation as the result of an urgent request for protection by Mme. Alexandra Kollontay, Minister to Norway.

Unusual attention has been shown by the presence of the police at the legation building, an exclusive mention in close proximity to the Royal Palace, facing the Royal Gardens.

Mme. Kollontay's request for aid was made last night after the receipt of a threatening letter from an unknown foreigner. The letter was posted in Oslo. The sender's moves are not known, but The Daily News correspondent in close proximity to the legation has been furnished with the following explanation from Russians here.

Mme. Kollontay returned Tuesday from a visit to Russia. It appears that during her absence newspapers reached the Russians here containing an account to the effect that in Leningrad, where Kollontay's return and it is said to be his intention to avenge himself on the woman diplomat.

"I understand that one Russian in particular, believed hitherto to have resided in Paris, maintains that close relatives of his were among the victims. This Russian is supposed to have arrived in Oslo simultaneously with Mme. Kollontay's return and it is said to be his intention to avenge himself on the woman diplomat.

A Scot had been sentenced to a term of imprisonment, and on his first day a burly soldier armed with a brush and a large bucket of water. "That's to wash your cell," he said briefly and departed.

A few minutes later, hearing strange sounds, the warden returned to find the Scot scrubbed in Nature's garb, standing in the bucket, and shivering dolefully as he scrubbed himself with the brush.

"John, you think more of that old radio than you do of me," "Well, dear, I get less interference from it."
